

Blue Star Sports Acquires GroupNet Solutions

DALLAS--Blue Star Sports, the industry leader in integrated software and payment solutions to youth sports organizations, announced today its latest acquisition of GroupNet Solutions - a leading provider of cloud based registration systems for youth sports leagues and events. GroupNet, based out of Chantilly, Virginia will join other Blue Star Sports family companies located across the United States and Canada.

The acquisition of GroupNet further expands on the integrated sports technology solutions currently being offered by Blue Star Sports. GroupNet Solutions currently serves over 1.9 million users and have been in the youth sport registration industry since its inception in 1997.

“Blue Star Sports continues to pursue the best and brightest technology companies with the most interesting customer relationships in youth sports.” said Eric Frazier, Co-Founder and Chief Vision Officer at Blue Star Sports. “GroupNet Solutions has a long history of “white glove” customer care and deep subject matter expertise which when combined with Blue Star’s resources, will expand the solutions we can provide for our current and future customers.”

“GroupNet has always been a very customer centric company, and we are excited to bring new resources and technology tools to our users as a result of joining the Blue Star Sports family,” said GroupNet Solutions President John Jackson. “We firmly believe in the direction of Blue Star Sports and the steps they are taking to improve youth sports. We are proud to join forces with them to help execute on this vision.”
